ABSTRACT

Twenty-seven meiotic chromosome counts are reported for 20 species in nine families of plants from western Texas, mostly the Trans-Pecos region. The counts for Packera texensis, Chamaesyce stictospora, Astragalus argillophilus, A. bigelovii, and A. marcidus are first reports.

RESUMEN

Se publican veintisiete recuentos cromosómicos en meiosis de 20 especies de nueve familias de plantas del Oeste de Texas, la mayoría de la región de Trans-Pecos. Los recuentos de Packera texensis, Chamaesyce strictospora, Astragalus argillophilus, A. bigelovii, y A. marcidus son los primeros realizados.

Bud collections were obtained and the following chromosome number determinations were made during the course of floristic fieldwork in Trans-Pecos, Texas, and nearby areas of the state. Meiotic chromosome counts were produced by the first author, or in some cases initiated by the collector cited and verified by AMP, using techniques described in Turner and Johnston (1961); the second author also verified many of the counts. We acknowledge the collections and chromosomal observations of E.F. McRae, W. Jacobs, D. Foster, and S.A. Powell. Vouchers are in SRSC and/or TEX.
